

116TH CONGRESS
2D SESSION

H. R. 8428

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

DECEMBER 8, 2020

Received; read twice and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary

AN ACT

To provide for temporary protected status for residents of Hong Kong, and for other purposes.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

1   SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

2       This Act may be cited as the “Hong Kong People’s 3   Freedom and Choice Act of 2020”.

4   SEC. 2. DEFINITIONS.

5       For purposes of this Act:

6           (1) JOINT DECLARATION.—The term “Joint 7   Declaration” means the Joint Declaration of the 8   Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain 9   and Northern Ireland and the Government of the 10   People’s Republic of China on the Question of Hong 11   Kong, signed on December 19, 1984, and entered 12   into force on May 27, 1985.

13           (2) PRIORITY HONG KONG RESIDENT.—The 14   term “Priority Hong Kong resident” means—

15                  (A) a permanent resident of Hong Kong 16   who—

17                          (i) holds no right to citizenship in any 18   country or jurisdiction other than the Peo-19   ple’s Republic of China (referred to in this 20   Act as “PRC”), Hong Kong, or Macau as 21   of the date of enactment of this Act;

22                          (ii) has resided in Hong Kong for not 23   less than the last 10 years as of the date 24   of enactment of this Act; and

25                          (iii) has been designated by the Sec-
26   retary of State or Secretary of Homeland

1                   Security as having met the requirements of 2                   this subparagraph, in accordance with the 3                   procedures described in section 7 of this 4                   Act; or

5                   (B) the spouse of a person described in 6                   subparagraph (A), or the child of such person 7                   as such term is defined in section 101(b)(1) of 8                   the Immigration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C.
9                   1101(b)(1)), except that a child shall be an un-10                  married person under twenty-seven years of 11                  age.

12                  (3) HONG KONG NATIONAL SECURITY LAW.—
13                  The term “Hong Kong National Security Law” 14                  means the Law of the People’s Republic of China on 15                  Safeguarding National Security in the Hong Kong
16                  Special Administrative Region that was passed 17                  unanimously by the National People’s Congress and 18                  signed by President Xi Jinping on June 30, 2020, 19                  and promulgated in the Hong Kong Special Admin-20                  istrative Region (referred to in this Act as “Hong 21                  Kong SAR”) on July 1, 2020.

22                  (4) APPROPRIATE CONGRESSIONAL COMMIT-
23                  TEES.—The term “appropriate congressional com-24                  mittees” means—

(A) the Committee on Foreign Affairs and the Committee on the Judiciary of the House of Representatives; and

(B) the Committee on Foreign Relations and the Committee on the Judiciary of the Senate.

7 SEC. 3. FINDINGS.

8 Congress finds the following:

11 (A) contravenes the Basic Law of the 12 Hong Kong Special Administrative Region (re-13 ferred to in this Act as “the Basic Law”) that 14 provides in Article 23 that the Legislative 15 Council of Hong Kong shall enact legislation re-16 lated to national security;

17 (B) violates the PRC's commitments under 18 international law, as defined by the Joint Dec-19 laration; and

20 (C) causes severe and irreparable damage 21 to the “one country, two systems” principle and 22 further erodes global confidence in the PRC’s 23 commitment to international law.

1 President Trump signed an Executive order on 2 Hong Kong normalization that, among other policy
3 actions, suspended the special treatment of Hong 4 Kong persons under U.S. law with respect to the 5 issuance of immigrant and nonimmigrant visas.

6 (3) The United States has a long and proud
7 history as a destination for refugees and asylees flee-
8 ing persecution based on race, religion, nationality, 9 political opinion, or membership in a particular so-
10 cial group.

11 (4) The United States also shares deep social, 12 cultural, and economic ties with the people of Hong 13 Kong, including a shared commitment to democracy, 14 to the rule of law, and to the protection of human 15 rights.

16 (5) The United States has sheltered, protected, 17 and welcomed individuals who have fled authori-
18 tarian regimes, including citizens from the PRC fol-19 lowing the violent June 4, 1989, crackdown in 20 Tiananmen Square, deepening ties between the peo-21 ple of the United States and those individuals seek-22 ing to contribute to a free, open society founded on 23 democracy, human rights, and the respect for the 24 rule of law.

1                         (6) The United States has reaped enormous 2 economic, cultural, and strategic benefits from wel-
3 coming successive generations of scientists, doctors, 4 entrepreneurs, artists, intellectuals, and other free-
5 dom-loving people fleeing fascism, communism, vio-
6 lent Islamist extremism, and other repressive
7 ideologies, including in the cases of Nazi Germany,
8 the Soviet Union, and Soviet-controlled Central Eu-
9 rope, Cuba, Vietnam, and Iran.

10                        (7) A major asymmetric advantage of the 11 United States in its long-term strategic competition 12 with the Communist Party of China is the ability of 13 people from every country in the world, irrespective 14 of their race, ethnicity, or religion, to immigrate to 15 the United States and become American citizens.

16 SEC. 4. STATEMENT OF POLICY.

17                       It is the policy of the United States—

18                       (1) to reaffirm the principles and objectives set 19 forth in the United States-Hong Kong Policy Act of 20 1992 (Public Law 102–383), namely that—

21                       (A) the United States has “a strong inter-22 est in the continued vitality, prosperity, and 23 stability of Hong Kong”;

24                       (B) “support for democratization is a fun-
25 damental principle of United States foreign pol-

1           icy” and therefore “naturally applies to United 2           States policy toward Hong Kong”;

3           (C) “the human rights of the people of 4           Hong Kong are of great importance to the 5           United States and are directly relevant to 6           United States interests in Hong Kong and 7           serve as a basis for Hong Kong’s continued eco-8           nomic prosperity”; and

9           (D) Hong Kong must remain sufficiently 10          autonomous from the PRC to “justify treat-11          ment under a particular law of the United 12          States, or any provision thereof, different from 13          that accorded the People’s Republic of China”;

14          (2) to continue to support the high degree of 15          autonomy and fundamental rights and freedoms of 16          the people of Hong Kong, as enumerated by—

17           (A) the Joint Declaration;

18           (B) the International Covenant on Civil 19          and Political Rights, done at New York Decem-20          ber 19, 1966; and

21           (C) the Universal Declaration of Human 22          Rights, done at Paris December 10, 1948;

23          (3) to continue to support the democratic aspi-24          rations of the people of Hong Kong, including the 25          “ultimate aim” of the selection of the Chief Execu-

1 tive and all members of the Legislative Council by 2 universal suffrage, as articulated in the Basic Law;

3 (4) to urge the Government of the PRC, despite 4 its recent actions, to uphold its commitments to 5 Hong Kong, including allowing the people of Hong 6 Kong to govern Hong Kong with a high degree of 7 autonomy and without undue interference, and en-
8 suring that Hong Kong voters freely enjoy the right 9 to elect the Chief Executive and all members of the 10 Hong Kong Legislative Council by universal suf-11 frage;

12 (5) to support the establishment of a genuine 13 democratic option to freely and fairly nominate and 14 elect the Chief Executive of Hong Kong, and the es-
15 tablishment of open and direct democratic elections
16 for all members of the Hong Kong Legislative Coun-
17 cil;

18 (6) to support the robust exercise by residents
19 of Hong Kong of the rights to free speech, the press, 20 and other fundamental freedoms, as provided by the 21 Basic Law, the Joint Declaration, and the Inter-
22 national Covenant on Civil and Political Rights;

23 (7) to support freedom from arbitrary or unlaw-
24 ful arrest, detention, or imprisonment for all Hong 25 Kong residents, as provided by the Basic Law, the

1       Joint Declaration, and the International Covenant
2       on Civil and Political Rights;

1       the Government of the PRC of the fundamental 2       rights of the people of Hong Kong.

3 SEC. 5. TEMPORARY PROTECTED STATUS FOR HONG KONG

4 RESIDENTS IN THE UNITED STATES.

5       (a) DESIGNATION.—

6               (1) IN GENERAL.—For purposes of section 244
7       of the Immigration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C.
8       1254a), Hong Kong shall be treated as if it had 9       been designated under subsection (b)(1)(C) of that 10      section, subject to the provisions of this section.

11               (2) PERIOD OF DESIGNATION.—The initial pe-
12      riod of the designation referred to in paragraph (1) 13      shall be for the 18-month period beginning on the 14      date of enactment of this Act.

15               (b) ALIENS ELIGIBLE.—As a result of the designa-
16      tion made under subsection (a), an alien is deemed to sat-
17      isfy the requirements under paragraph (1) of section 18      244(c) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C.
19      1254a(c)), subject to paragraph (3) of such section, if the 20      alien—

21               (1) was a permanent resident of Hong Kong at 22      the time such individual arrived into the United 23      States and is a national of the PRC (or in the case
24      of an individual having no nationality, is a person 25      who last habitually resided in Hong Kong);

1                         (2) has been continuously physically present in 2                         the United States since the date of the enactment of 3                         this Act;

4                         (3) is admissible as an immigrant, except as 5                         otherwise provided in paragraph (2)(A) of such sec-6                         tion, and is not ineligible for temporary protected 7                         status under paragraph (2)(B) of such section; and 8                         (4) registers for temporary protected status in 9                         a manner established by the Secretary of Homeland

10                         Security.

11                         (c) CONSENT TO TRAVEL ABROAD.—

12                         (1) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary of Homeland 13                         Security shall give prior consent to travel abroad, in 14                         accordance with section 244(f)(3) of the Immigra-15                         tion and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. 1254a(f)(3)), to 16                         an alien who is granted temporary protected status 17                         pursuant to the designation made under subsection 18                         (a) if the alien establishes to the satisfaction of the 19                         Secretary of Homeland Security that emergency and 20                         extenuating circumstances beyond the control of the 21                         alien require the alien to depart for a brief, tem-22                         porary trip abroad.

23                         (2) TREATMENT UPON RETURN.—An alien re-24                         turning to the United States in accordance with an 25                         authorization described in paragraph (1) shall be

1       treated as any other returning alien provided tem-
2       porary protected status under section 244 of the Im-
3       migration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. 1254a).

4       (d) FEE.—

5               (1) IN GENERAL.—In addition to any other fee
6       authorized by law, the Secretary of Homeland Secu-
7       rity is authorized to charge and collect a fee of $360
8       for each application for temporary protected status
9       under section 244 of the Immigration and Nation-10      ality Act by a person who is only eligible for such 11      status by reason of subsection (a).

12               (2) WAIVER.—The Secretary of Homeland Se-13       curity shall permit aliens to apply for a waiver of 14       any fees associated with filing an application re-15       ferred to in paragraph (1).

16 SEC. 6. TREATMENT OF HONG KONG RESIDENTS FOR IMMI-
17 GRATION PURPOSES.

18       Notwithstanding any other provision of law, during 19       the 5 fiscal year period beginning on the first day of the 20       first full fiscal year after the date of enactment of this 21       Act, Hong Kong shall continue to be considered a foreign 22       state separate and apart from the PRC as mandated 23       under section 103 of the Immigration and Nationality Act
24       of 1990 (Public Law 101–649) for purposes of the numer-
25       ical limitations on immigrant visas under sections 201,

1 202, and 203 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (8 2 U.S.C. 1151, 1152, and 1153).

3 SEC. 7. VERIFICATION OF HONG KONG PRIORITY RESI-
4 DENTS.

5 (a) IN GENERAL.—Not later than 180 days after the 6 date of the enactment of this Act, the Secretary of State,
7 in consultation with the Secretary of Homeland Security,
8 shall publish in the Federal Register, an interim final rule
9 establishing procedures for designation of Hong Kong Pri-10 ority Residents. Notwithstanding section 553 of title 5, 11 United States Code, the rule shall be effective, on an in-12 terim basis, immediately upon publication, but may be 13 subject to change and revision after public notice and op-14 portunity for comment. The Secretary of State shall final-15 ize such rule not later than 1 year after the date of the 16 enactment of this Act. Such rule shall establish proce-
17 dures—

18 (1) for individuals to register with any United 19 States embassy or consulate outside of the United 20 States, or with the Department of Homeland Secu-21 rity in the United States, and request designation as 22 a Priority Hong Kong Resident; and 23 (2) for the appropriate Secretary to verify the 24 residency of registered individuals and designate 25 those who qualify as Priority Hong Kong Residents.

1       (b) DOCUMENTATION.—The procedures described in 2 subsection (a) shall include the collection of—

3                 (1) biometric data;
4                 (2) copies of birth certificates, residency cards, 5                 and other documentation establishing residency; and 6                 (3) other personal information, data, and 7                 records deemed appropriate by the Secretary.

8       (c) GUIDANCE.—Not later than 90 days after the 9 date of the enactment of this Act, the Secretary of State
10 shall issue guidance outlining actions to enhance the abil-
11 ity of the Secretary to efficiently send and receive informa-
12 tion to and from the United Kingdom and other like-mind-
13 ed allies and partners for purposes of rapid verification 14 of permanent residency in Hong Kong and designation of 15 individuals as Priority Hong Kong Residents.

16       (d) REPORT.—Not later than 90 days after the date 17 of the enactment of this Act, the Secretary of State shall 18 submit a report to the House Committees on Foreign Af-19 fairs and the Judiciary and the Senate Committees on 20 Foreign Relations and the Judiciary detailing plans to im-
21 plement the requirements described in this subsection.

22       (e) PROTECTION FOR REFUGEES.—Nothing in this 23 section shall be construed to prevent a Priority Hong 24 Kong Resident from seeking refugee status under section
25 207 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C.

1 1157) or requesting asylum under section 208 of such Act
2 (8 U.S.C. 1158).

3 SEC. 8. REPORTING REQUIREMENTS.

4 (a) IN GENERAL.—On an annual basis, the Secretary
5 of State and the Secretary of Homeland Security, in con-6 sultation with other Federal agencies, as appropriate, shall 7 submit a report to the appropriate congressional commit-8 tees, detailing for the previous fiscal year—

9 (1) the number of Hong Kong SAR residents
10 who have applied for U.S. visas or immigration ben-11 efits, disaggregated by visa type or immigration ben-12 efit, including asylum, refugee status, temporary 13 protected status, and lawful permanent residence;

14 (2) the number of approvals, denials, or rejec-
15 tions of applicants for visas or immigration benefits
16 described in paragraph (1), disaggregated by visa
17 type or immigration benefit and basis for denial;

18 (3) the number of pending refugee and asylum 19 applications for Hong Kong SAR residents, and the 20 length of time and reason for which such applica-21 tions have been pending; and

22 (4) other matters deemed relevant by the Secre-23 taries relating to efforts to protect and facilitate the 24 resettlement of refugees and victims of persecution
25 in Hong Kong.

1       (b) FORM.—Each report under subsection (a) shall 2 be submitted in unclassified form and published on a text-
3 searchable, publicly available website of the Department
4 of State and the Department of Homeland Security.

5 SEC. 9. STRATEGY FOR INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION ON 6 HONG KONG.

7       (a) IN GENERAL.—It is the policy of the United 8 States—

9                         (1) to support the people of Hong Kong by pro-10                         viding safe haven to Hong Kong SAR residents who 11                         are nationals of the PRC following the enactment of 12                         the Hong Kong National Security Law that places
13                         certain Hong Kong persons at risk of persecution; 14                         and

15                   (2) to encourage like-minded nations to make 16 similar accommodations for Hong Kong people flee-
17 ing persecution by the Government of the PRC.

18       (b) PLAN.—The Secretary of State, in consultation
19 with the heads of other Federal agencies, as appropriate, 20 shall develop a plan to engage with other nations, includ-21 ing the United Kingdom, on cooperative efforts to—

22 (1) provide refugee and asylum protections for 23 victims of, and individuals with a fear of, persecu-
24 tion in Hong Kong, either by Hong Kong authorities
25 or other authorities acting on behalf of the PRC;

1                         (2) enhance protocols to facilitate the resettlement
2                         of refugees and displaced persons from Hong Kong;

4                         (3) identify and prevent the exploitation of immigration and visa policies and procedures by corrupt officials; and

7                         (4) expedite the sharing of information, as appropriate, related to the refusal of individual applications for visas or other travel documents submitted by residents of the Hong Kong SAR based on—

12                         (A) national security or related grounds under section 212(a)(3) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. 1182(a)(3)); or 15                         (B) fraud or misrepresentation under section 212(a)(6)(C) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. 1182(a)(6)(C)).

18                         (c) REPORT.—Not later than 90 days after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Secretary of State, in consultation with the heads of other Federal agencies, as appropriate, shall submit a report on the plan described in subsection (b) to the appropriate congressional committees.

1   SEC. 10. REFUGEE STATUS FOR CERTAIN RESIDENTS OF 2                   HONG KONG.

3       (a) IN GENERAL.—Aliens described in subsection (b)
4   may establish, for purposes of admission as a refugee 5   under sections 207 of the Immigration and Nationality 6   Act (8 U.S.C. 1157) or asylum under section 208 of such 7   Act (8 U.S.C. 1158), that such alien has a well-founded 8   fear of persecution on account of race, religion, nation-9   ality, membership in a particular social group, or political 10   opinion by asserting such a fear and a credible basis for 11   concern about the possibility of such persecution.

12       (b) ALIENS DESCRIBED.—

13               (1) IN GENERAL.—An alien is described in this 14   subsection if such alien—

15               (A) is a Priority Hong Kong Resident 16   and—

17               (i) had a significant role in a civil so-18   ciety organization supportive of the pro-19   tests in 2019 and 2020 related to the 20   Hong Kong National Security Law and the 21   encroachment on the autonomy of Hong
22   Kong by the PRC;

23               (ii) was arrested, charged, detained, 24   or convicted of an offense arising from 25   their participation in an action as de-26   scribed in section 206(b)(2) of the United

1 States-Hong Kong Policy Act of 1992 (22 2 U.S.C. 5726(b)(2)) that was not violent in 3 nature; or

4 (iii) has had their citizenship, nation-
5 ality, or residency revoked for having sub-
6 mitted to any United States Government
7 agency a nonfrivolous application for ref-
8 ugee status, asylum, or any other immigra-
9 tion benefit under the immigration laws
10 (as defined in section 101(a) of that Act (8 11 U.S.C. 1101(a)));

12 (B) is a Priority Hong Kong Resident
13 spouse or child of an alien described in sub-14 paragraph (A); or

(C) is the parent of an alien described in subparagraph (A), if such parent is a citizen of the PRC and no other foreign state.

1       count of race, religion, nationality, membership in a 2       particular social group, or political opinion.

3                     (3) SIGNIFICANT ROLE.—For purposes of 4       clause (i) of subsection (b)(1)(A), a significant role 5       shall include, with respect to the protests described 6       in such clause—

7                         (A) an organizing role;
8                         (B) a first aid responder;
9                         (C) a journalist or member of the media
10       covering or offering public commentary;

11                         (D) a provider of legal services to one or 12       more individuals arrested for participating in 13       such protests; or

14                         (E) a participant who during the period
15       beginning on June 9, 2019, and ending on June 16       30, 2020, was arrested, charged, detained, or 17       convicted as a result of such participation.

18             (c) AGE OUT PROTECTIONS.—For purposes of this 19       section, a determination of whether an alien is a child shall 20       be made using the age of the alien on the date on which 21       the alien files an application for refugee or asylum status 22       with the Secretary of Homeland Security.

23             (d) EXCLUSION FROM NUMERICAL LIMITATIONS.—
24       Aliens provided refugee status under this section shall not 25       be counted against the numerical limitation on refugees

1 established in accordance with the procedures described in 2 section 207 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (8
3 U.S.C. 1157).

4 (e) REPORTING REQUIREMENTS.—

5 (1) IN GENERAL.—Not later than 90 days after 6 the date of the enactment of this Act, and every 90
7 days thereafter, the Secretary of State and the Sec-
